Senator Dick Durbin @SenatorDurbin · Dec 22, 2022
With the high costs of tuition, many students can't afford to purchase the expensive textbooks required for classes. Increased funding for the Open Textbook Program will provide relief for many students. Proud to have secured $12M for this program in the government funding bill.

You BETRAYED 38 million distressed student loan borrowers.

Shame on you, and shame on @TheDemocrats.

Much at Stake for Democrats with Student Loans and Bankruptcy. They betrayed the people in '08 and in the Lame Duck of '10. They're on the verge of doing it again.

It is clear that our government is in the business of predatory lending.

It has become clear to me that the Govt is more interested in making a profit off its citizen rather than upholding the constitution!

And Biden helped them do it.
The most corporate politician from the most corporate friendly state in the nation. The only citizens he works for are corporate citizens.
Biden never intended to give student loan relief. That's why he did it a way that was sure to fail in the courts

This. How hard was it to restore basic constitutional rights and protections to 45 million student loan borrowers? Why was it so difficult to pass basic bills to return basic rights? Not taking us seriously? Wow... just... wow.
