

File copy of relevant portions of interview I had with one of our readers (both messenger chat and audio phone call).

Writer / Interviewer: Gordon Wayne Watts,
National Director, CONTRACT WITH AMERICA: PART II^(TM) ;

PANES:

- 1.) Reader, who got an unsatisfactory response from his U.S. Senator, reaches out to us for request for news coverage aka “Free Press” Doctrine, re: S.2598, a collegiate loan bankruptcy bill with—as of press time—twice as many GOP sponsors as Democrat: <https://www.Congress.gov/bill/117th-congress/senate-bill/2598/cosponsors>
- 2.) Reader grants permission to quote him when doing news, commentary, & investigative reporting.
- 3.) Reader confirms name of legislative aide with whom he spoke.
- 4.) Reader clarifies a typo: He meant to say that U.S. Sen. Pat Toomy (R-PA) does not support S.2598 on basis of alleged cost to taxpayers.
- 5.) This interviewer followed up with a phone conversation of over an hour and a half to clarify details.

Yo I called too Ey this morning and they outright said they don't support s2598 as it will burden the taxpayer

Say therefore they don't support our constitutional rights then either

Heather Taylor thought it was a good idea for me to inform you of this communication because she believes that you are good at speaking with other republicans
