-- QUESTION: “Why have you not, as yet, filed legislation that seeks to reverse these toxic bills that go against our Republican Party's official platform?[1] GOP PLATFORM QUOTE: “The federal government should not be in the business of originating student loans.”[1] -- Multiple choice answer:

[[A]] I really don't support the Republican Party's stated platform, above; I'm a Liberal.

[[B]] I do support the GOP platform, but haven't filed or co-sponsored any such bills because:

[[1]] Exigent “emergency” circumstances (fill in the blank).

[[2]] Lack of student loan bankruptcy self-defense to provide Conservative “Free Market” check on the Dept of Ed's insane and excessive lending has allowed lobbyists to make subsidy/spending cuts politically impossible, but I shall immediately support student loan bankruptcy legislation[2] to make this so.

[[3]] I have filed / co-sponsored spending cuts legislation (fill in the blank).

Editor's Note: S.2598 (a student loan bk bill with more GOP sponsors than Democrat), <https://www.Congress.gov/bill/117th-congress/senate-bill/2598/cosponsors> and H.R.4907 for private collegiate loans <https://www.Congress.gov/bill/117th-congress/house-bill/4907/text> would do the trick and make [[2]], above, possible, and be our conservative alternative to liberal free handouts. I.e., Rep. FRANKLIN needs to join Sens. Josh Hawley (R-MO) and John Cornyn (R-TX) and chairman Durbin on this bill.
